SIVA PURAM :

Christmas celebration at Siva Puram was indeed a grace filled occasion. Sch. Aseer lead the choir. Two young and energetic priests namely Fr. Johnnes and Fr. Joseph from Heralds of Good News joined the celebration. The homily was touching and meaningful for the parishioners. If the greatest need of the world was money, God would have come as an economist, if the greatest need of the world were entertainment God would have come as an actor, but the greatest need of the world was salvation so God has come as a Savior.

We had healing prayer service by Frs. Arul Joe and Joseph on the second day, it was a moving experience for all those who attended it. Hindu and Christian brothers were specially invited for this service. Their participation and devotion to child Jesus was inspiring. There was a Rangoli competition on the same day. Fr. Joseph and Sch. Aseer were the judges. It was a sign of encouragement from the side of parish priest to motivate and bring unity among the parishioners in different activities. Fr. Arul Joe, systematically planned well in advance to make the celebration of incarnation meaningful. - Sch. Aseer

JESUIT SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY, BERKELEY :

Changing Indian Face of the Community: Between Dec 2013 and Jan 2014, the Indian presence at the Jesuit Community in Berkeley has seen a considerable change. Frs. Amalnathan and Kulandai (MDU) completed their sabbatical program and moved on for their other programs. With their long experience in a variety of ministries, they "brought much wisdom to the classroom and the community", as one of the senior community members confided. May the Good One continue to bless them in their future ministries! For this semester, three visiting scholars and one sabbatical candidate added to the richness of the community. We welcome them warmly and wish them a fruitful and blessed stay.

New Semester: After the winter intersession, the community is back in its full strength. We have begun our new semester with a two-day workshop on "Living Celibacy: Healthy Pathways for Priests", based on a book with same title and under the able guidance of Fr. G. S. Manuel SJ (CAL). The community of formees then moved to Los Altos for our annual Vows renewal triduum (Jan 29-31). When we got back, we had a day of general cleaning and then the life back to grinding schedule of the school.

Paper Presentation: A communique from the Leonardo Museum Conference on the Dead Sea Scrolls has brought in some encouraging tidings that my paper on the interpretation of prophet Micah by the Scroll Community has been accepted for presentation. The paper is titled: "Jerusalem, the Proximate 'Other'. Constructing Identity and Negotiating Boundary in Pesher Micah (1Q14): A Social Identity Reading". Grateful regards are due to Prof. John C. Endres SJ, my academic advisor, who helped articulate the findings in a coherent and context-sensitive way.

PROVINCE RENEWAL & PILGRIMAGE DAYS' REPORT :

The Province had decided to have a day of recollection and a pilgrimage as part of commemorative celebration of Bi-centenary of the Restoration of the Society. It was realized on 18th and 19th of January 2014. As most of us have witnessed we could say undoubtedly that the Province Renewal & Pilgrimage to Oleru were not only a great success but also more of a spiritually fruit bearing experience for each one of us. On 18th January the day began with a prayer service conducted by the scholastics at the hosting community Anandajyothi. The spiritual flame which was ignited by that prayer lasted throughout the two days. The input sessions by Fr. Thamburaj on the pre-suppression, suppression, restoration and post-restoration enlightened our minds intellectually, enkindled our hearts spiritually and encouraged us vigorously. We are very grateful to Fr. Thamburaj for having given us a picturesque and panoramic view of the history of the Society through his wonderful Power Point presentation.

The 19th January which was a day of pilgrimage to Oleru indeed marked the commemoration of bicentenary celebration of the Restoration of the Society very spiritually with a candle light procession. It was indeed a witnessing event both for the people of Oleru and for us. The old Jesuit church of the 18th century, though almost in a dilapidated state, was opened precisely for our sake by the local Claratian Priests. The Eucharist in Oleru was presided over by Fr. Christuraj whose Christian ancestors migrated from this place to Tamil Nadu. Fr. Amar preached a fiery homily.

We thank in a special way Fr. Thomas, Superior of the community and Fr. James, the Parish priest of Oleru, for their welcome, hospitality and cooperation. We are also thankful to JMJ sisters of Repalle and Cluny sisters of Battiprolu for their invaluable help. Fr. Tom and the Parish priest of Battiprolu merits a special note of thanks for his cooperation. It goes without saying that the success of any event is due to the meticulous planning and hard work of many people. We extend our thanks, first of all, to our Provincial for having given us this occasion for the renewal. The organizing committee namely Fr. Ravindra, Fr. John Joseph and Fr. Amar deserve a special thanks for all the pains and hard work that they had put in. We thank Fr. Amar and the LPS community for having provided us two comfortable buses to Oleru. Sch. Prabhu played a pivotal role in organizing the day of pilgrimage in Oleru. Kudos to him in a special way. The sumptuous meals provided by Fr. Selvin and Br. Boghe were well appreciated by all. All the scholastics of Anandajyothi and novices gave their best in different ways for the smooth functioning of these two days. We thank them all in a profound way.

- Fr. Ashok SJ

ANANDA JYOTHI - NOVITIATE - NUMBUR :

The New Year commenced with the birthdays of Fr. Ashok and Sch. Francis. On 1st January we had a friendly volleyball match with the novices in the morning, a prayer service and a sumptuous dinner in the evening. From 3rd to 6th we had a course on Catechesis by Br. Xavier Amal SJ. He made his classes very lively. We indeed enjoyed his classes and profited by the examples and experiences from his own life. This consequently helped us to carry out our ministries quite effectively. We thank Br. Xavier Amal profoundly for all the tips and encouragement that he gave us with regard to the effective way of proceeding in our ministry. The month ended with a celebration of two more birthdays of Sch. Prabhu and novice Ashok. Our community hosted the Province Renewal programme. We actively participated and profited by it. It was a wonderful occasion for us to come in contact with many Jesuits of our Province.
